MONTPELIER VERMONT

The wise old owl sat in an oak,
The more he heard the less he spoke

The less he spoke the more he heard,
Why aren't we like that wise old bird?
- Edward Hersey Richards

DEDICATION

This yearbook is dedicated to a person who has truly shown what determination, willpower and courage can achieve. His ever-present smile and positive attitude give each and every one of us the strength to face our daily life with optimism. We have been fortunate to share our school years with such a person.

With a feeling of warmth, friendship, and pride that this year we have chosen to break with tradition, and in so doing, we honor one of our classmates.

It is, therefore, with a great sense of appreciation for all he has given and for all he represents that we dedicate the 1985 yearbook to our friend and classmate, John McArdle.

FRESH FACULTY FACES

Joanne Davidman, Home Economics Teacher

Nancy Rogers, Planning Room Aid

Katherine Bourne, Chorus and Band Director

Jane Youngbear, Special Education

Maureen Charron-Shea, Speech Therapist

Andrea Myotte, French Teacher

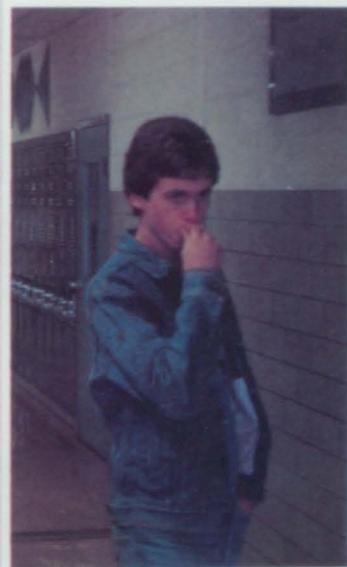

Mary Marsh, Secretary

FADS AND FASHIONS

Wool sweaters, cardigans or pullovers, rugby shirts and pants ranging from girls' knickers to those worn by boys with many buttons and zippers, and even hockey pants, and finally jump suits—these are the clothes seen in the halls of MHS. How will these fashions appear to your children in 2005 or to your grandchildren in 2025?

REVENGE OF THE SENIORS!

Going along with an annual tradition, the Seniors initiated the Freshmen. This was done to "welcome" them to the school. The class of '85 came up with some good ideas on how to initiate the class of '88! They were forced to learn the school song, and sing it while marching up and down the halls of the school.

Joey Wood dressed to kill!

Wait 'til it's our turn!

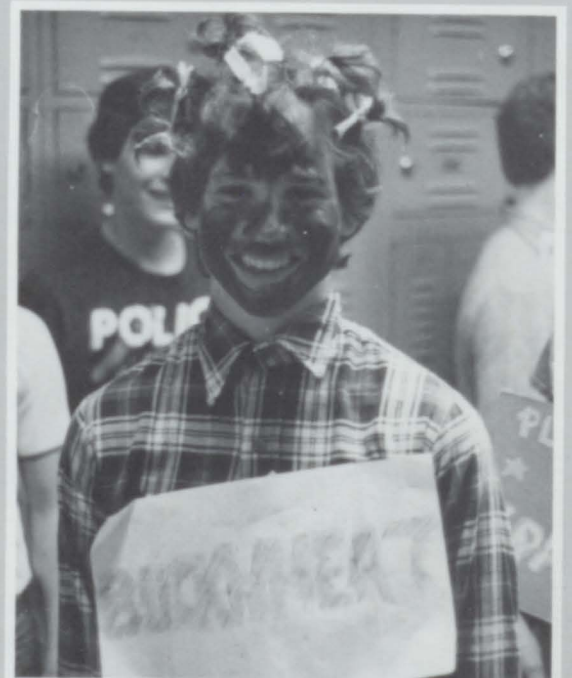

Ames Robb blossoms forth.

Rosemarie White and her bunny, Chad Nielsen

Mark Premo makes a pig out of Dan Robertson

Is that really David Rice? (yea-ah)

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION

Susan McDermott has two for the road.

Pat Sheridan, the most colorful frosh.

Ray Labbe, fired up!

Fred Bashara gets into the swing of things.

Russell FitzPatrick heels for his master.

Pat McGinley's freshman dives into the fun.

Kip Penniman, Shea Sweeney clowning around with Stephanie Pinard.

TOWN

Mr. Brooks watches us closely on closed-circuit T.V.

Heidi Barker and Keith Mailhotte.

Mr. Ashley crowns Christie Coates, while Adam Walker, Susan McDermott and Mike Whitney look on.

The class of 1985 dances the night away at their Prom, appropriately called Street of Dreams. It was held at National Life, on the nineteenth of May 1984. It was a night to remember for Christie Coates, elected Queen, and Adam Walker, named King.

Jason Mallery and Miriam Novogrodsky.

Superintendent of Schools
BS Arcadia University
MEd Springfield College

Congratulations, Seniors, on reaching this important milestone in your lives: The faculty of Montpelier High School has worked hard to prepare you for what lies ahead. But, as you leave this school and step out into the real, unsheltered world, you will encounter many experiences for which you were not prepared in the classroom. Your participation in co-curricular activities may have given you some practice in dealing with these things, but your basic tools of survival remain your own intellect, common sense, and love for your fellow human beings.

In looking ahead, remain positive. You are capable of achieving whatever you set your sights on, so aim high. Be sure that the mark you make on the world is one that you and your loved ones can look at with pride.

You have been an exceptional class in so many ways. You have left us with memories that will remain forever.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy, successful future.

The following girls were members of the Varsity Football Cheerleading Squad for the '84-'85 school year: Robyn Lipman, co-captain; Susan Alexander, co-captain; Lisa Plummer, Betty Gabree, Michelle Rochette, Karen Hickory, Kati Moran, and Annette DeMarcello. Ellen Marineau was the advisor for the girls this year.

Practice began the third week in August. The girls practiced every day through the second week of school for an hour to an hour and a half. After the second week of school practice was on Tuesdays and Thursdays for an hour and a half.

The girls and their advisor put in a lot of time and effort on their routines and their cheers. The result of their work was evident to all who saw them at the games. They were a fun-loving, high-spirited group of young ladies. MHS should be very proud of their cheerleaders, the heart of the school spirit.

The Solon's football team headed by co-captains Mitch Gowans and Tom Murray, had a tough season in their last year as a Division I team. The Solons, under head coach Burt Morrison, back from a year's leave of absence, played against teams from larger schools with much greater reservoirs of manpower on the sidelines. The Solons played as hard as possible against over-whelming odds in nearly every game. The courage and determination of all the players on the team at each outing is to be commended. Every opposing team knew they had played a formidable foe following each game.

A strong senior contingent followed our two captains and led the team. They leave a young, but promising junior squad behind for next year. The graduating seniors are: Running backs Trevor Lachapelle, Mark Premo, Ed Rice, and Rob Babcock; Quarter backs Dan Aja and Mike Whitney; Ends Mitch Gowans, Pat McGinley and Victor Pepin; Tackle Heinrich Farnham, Guards Tom Murray and Chris Garcia, and Center Jerry "Bear" Fitzgerald.

This year was the first year that the freshmen and sophomores played together on the J.V. team. In the past there was a separate team just for freshman. The combined team worked out very well. The sophomores, who had one year more of experience, helped the freshmen understand the plays and rules of the game while showing them the ropes.

The season ended with a record of three wins and six loses. Despite what the record may show, the team showed a lot of talent and perseverance. No matter how bad things got, they never once threw in the towel and gave up. The captains, Bill Bruzzese, Bill Fitzgerald, and Jim Beaulieu as well as Coach Smyrski and Coach Ceppetelli helped to lead the team and keep the spirits high.

The first game of the season was against Lebanon. This game went into four overtimes. In the last overtime the Raiders scored to give them a 6-0 win over the Solons. The strong J.V. team went from this defeat and won their next three contests against Rice, North Country, and St. Johnsbury. After this they met many more powerful teams, and unfortunately were not quite as successful.

In a couple more years with more experience and growth within the team, these boys will prove to be a good varsity football team. The future varsity teams will be exciting to watch.

VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

The 1984 Varsity Field Hockey team had one of the best seasons on record. The team did something that has never been done—it beat Stowe in its last home game of the season, 2-1, and it also got the number four seed in the playoffs. This was the first time any Montpelier Field Hockey team has beaten Stowe or got seeded so high in the playoffs.

The team went on to play Otter Valley in the Quarterfinals. After the team got on track, Montpelier dominated the game, which they won 2-0.

In the semifinals the team went up against the number one seed and eventual State Champion, Burr & Burton. The game went 60 minutes without a score, it then went into overtime, and finally into sudden death. Burr & Burton scored in the second sudden death period.

The two captains of the team this year were Cindy Bruzzese and Carolyn Gidney. Cindy and Carolyn were also named to the NVAC Mountain Division All-Star team. Anne Czaplinski received an honorable mention.

The team will lose eight seniors at graduation, but it has up and coming players to fill their shoes.

The Seniors on the team were Cindy Bruzzese, Carolyn Gidney, Anne Czaplinski, Miriam Novogrodsky, Beth Austin, Susan McDermott, Maureen O'Donnell, and Heidi Barker.

Cross Country

The girls cross country running team had a respectable season as freshman Jean Lovelette led the team. Sophomore "Die" Brigham improved from her freshman year to contribute to the Solon effort. The Solon girls are enthusiastically looking forward to next season as all will be returning except for senior captian Kris Eardensohn. The other members of the Solon varsity team are juniors Katie Whiney and Julie Rouelle and sophomore Maggie Whitney. The Solon girls finished their season with sixth place at the State Championships.

As for the boys, senior Matt Rowan and sophomore marc Gilbertson led the team to a third place finish in the state meet. Graduating seniors are Tom Drew, Matt Rowan, Joe Canales, Dave Poulin, Adam Walker, James Percy, Thad Schenker and James MacDonald.

There were seven freshmen boys on the team who clinched the first place spot at the Essex X-C Invitational. This proves that future teams will be successful.

Boys & Girls Varsity

The boy's and girl's basketball teams had more than their share of tough games this season. The varsity boys fell one game short of the playoffs. The girl's varsity team lost a tough playoff game to Vergennes in overtime. All the teams including the junior varsity boys and girls and freshman boys worked hard and were determined to win despite everything.

Mr. Drew's boys were fighting to the end to earn a playoff spot. Unfortunately playing a Division I schedule proved to be too much for the Solons. They stayed close in most games. Their losses were real heartbreakers. Many members of the team showed their skills by ending the season as top leaders in the Metro Division. Team captains, Victor Pepin, Mark Biosvert, and Peter Johnson were in the top ten rebounders. Michael Whitney and Chad Lilley placed in the top ten players in assists. The top ten scorers included Pat McGinley, Chad Lilley, and Victor Pepin.

Mr. Crowley's girls worked hard at long "Crowley time" practises which in the long run paid off. Their season's record was good enough to get them into the Division II playoffs against Vergennes. This was a heartbreakers game for in the last few seconds of overtime a long impossible shot was put up and went in. That one finished off their season. The Junior Varsity girls were very successful this year especially for having an eight player team. They came in third in the U-32 tournament at the end of the season. After the season ended the Varsity girl's fathers took them on the first annual Father-daughter basketball game. They had a lot of fun and hope that it will be an annual event.

The girls' and boys' cross-country ski teams had strong seasons in 1984-85 under the new leadership of coaches Jane Panicucci and Dick Miller. Each team won one meet and placed second and third several times during the season. Both teams narrowly missed qualifying for states. The girls' team was led by senior captain Anne Czaplinski, who won three races. Other girls contributing to the team were Diane Brigham, Georgia Goodrich, and Claire Poulin. The Boys' team was led by sophomore stand-out Marc Gilbertson who had one first and several seconds during the season. Marc placed an amazing sixth in the district meet to qualify for states individually, and a fine seventeenth place in the state. Graduating members of the boys' team are captain Mark Premo, Adam Walker Bodo Martin, and Ron Kramer.

Coach Jennifer Kennedy, Rachel Wallace-Brodeur, and Kris Eardensohn share the excitement of the state meet.

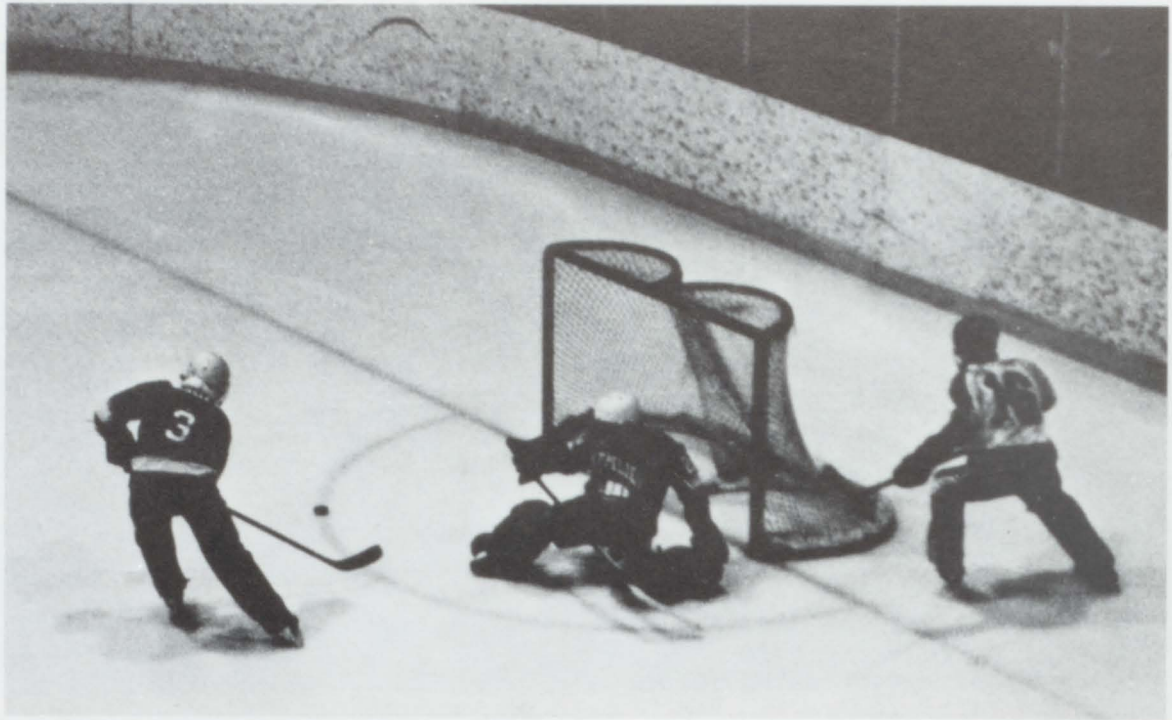

Both the girls' and boys' alpine ski teams ended successful seasons under the fine direction of first year coaches, Jennifer Kennedy, a former A All-American skier for UVM, and Rick Mackey, a Johnson State alumni skier. The night training at Bolton paid off, both individually and teamwise. The girls were led by senior Wendy Barquin, a first year member, and sophomore Caroline Costello. High points of the girls' season included two overall meet wins, the second occurring during the last meet of the regular season. The win kept the girls soaring into districts, where they placed fifth of thirteen teams and qualified as a team for states for the third year in a row. They didn't fare as well at states, but Costello raced to fifth overall in Slalom to gain a place in the New England Meet at Bromley in March. Graduating Seniors are Wendy Barquin, Heidi Barker, & Kris Eardensohn. The boys' team showed great potential individually as well as a team. They had a record turn-out of freshmen who looked good for the years ahead. The Solon boys were led by junior Todd Eardensohn, who just missed qualifying for the state meet as an individual with eleventh and sixteenth place finishes in districts. Jacques Delyea, a sophomore, also shows promise with first and fourth place finishes in the last regular season meet. The only graduating senior is James MacDonald.

The Skating Solons finished off another successful season with a record of 12 wins, 9 losses, and 1 tie. Coached by Brooke Pearson and Jeff Provost, the hockey team advanced to the semi-finals held at Gutterson Field House, UVM, for the fourth consecutive year. The Solons went up against the undefeated Hartford Hurricanes.

Although Hartford went on to win the championship, the Solon team earned a great deal of respect and admiration from their coaches, parents, friends, fans, and rivals, for their team effort, strong will and sportsmanship. Butch Lovering, coach of the Hartford Hurricanes, was quoted, "Give Montpelier all the credit in the world. They scared up pretty bad. They did what they had to do, and Danny Aja was just phenomenal." Dan made an incredible 54 saves in that game! Coach Pearson could only shake his head in amazement and disbelief over Dan's performance. For once, he was speechless!

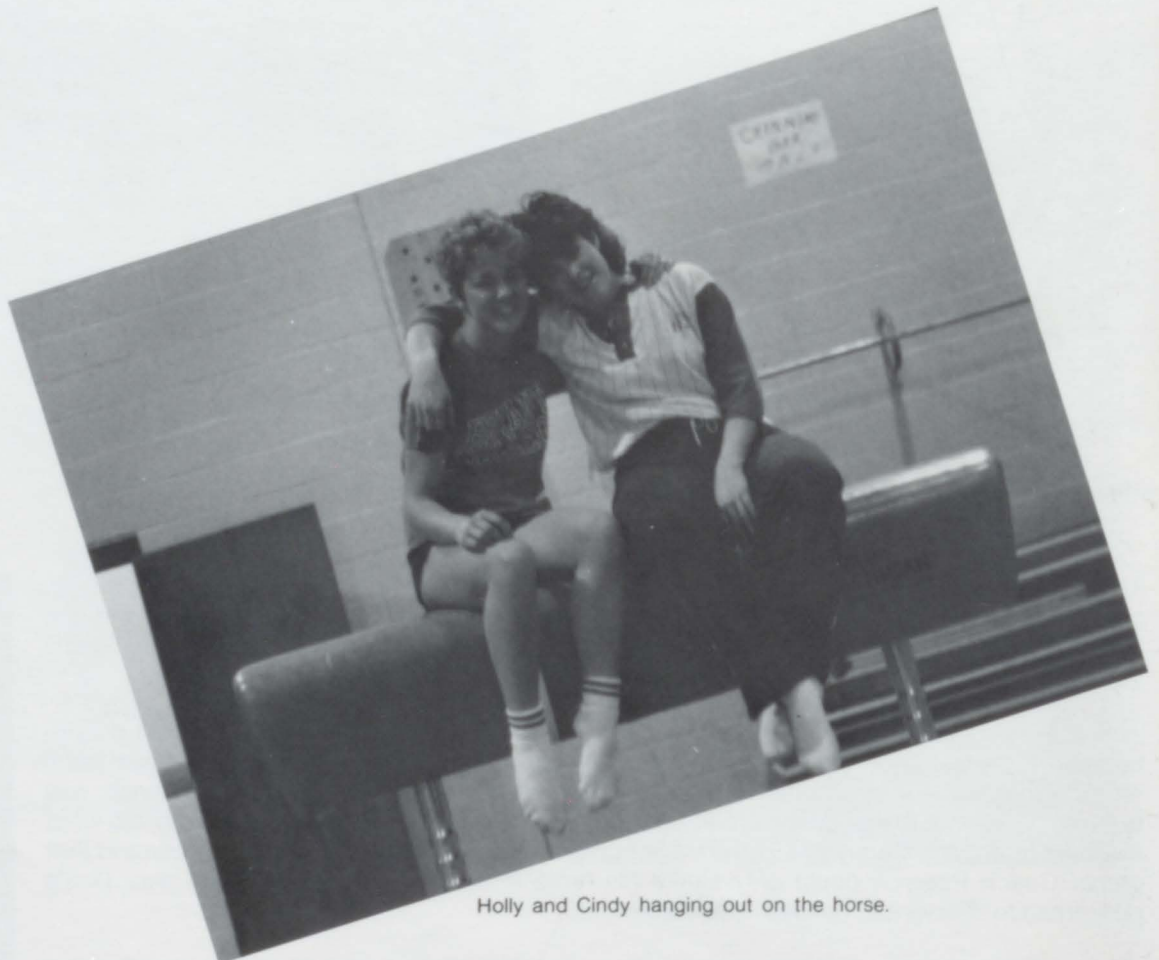

Over all, Craig Marineau was top scorer, with a record of 26 goals and 26 assists. Joe Canales was next in line with 19 goals and 11 assists. Solon goalie, Dan Aja, had a total of 329 saves.

Seniors, Dan Aja, Joe Canales, Craig Marineau, Tom Murray, and Dave Poulin, contributed a lot to the team and they wish good luck to the remaining players and future MHS hockey players in their future endeavors. Assistant coach Jeff Provost will be leaving the MHS coaching staff to

With the exemplary coaching of Gail Gorman the 1984 gymnastics team had an admirable season. There were many newcomers and all proved to be assets to the team.

Although only winning one meet, everyone performed exceptionally well and some reached a personal high.

In spite of an elbow injury, our only senior, Cindy Bruzzese continued to compete on beam and floor exercises. She did a super job.

There were four qualifiers to the individual state meet: Adri Phillips on the uneven bars, beam and floor exercises; sophomore Angela Ochmanski on vault; junior Holly Buttura on vault and the uneven bars; Senior Cindy Bruzzese on beam and floor exercises. Alternates were freshman Naomi Leeds on vault and on the uneven bars Jo D Valz.

October 28, 1984 began the annual Homecoming Week. Starting with Powder Puff football on Sunday and ending with the Homecoming Football Game against Spaulding High School on the following Saturday. Powder Puff Football on Sunday gave the Sophomores a victory.

On Monday there was the Tough Guy Volleyball Game with a victory for the Seniors. Monday was also Hush Day for the guys. Patti McDermott with her ability to make boys talk ended the day with the largest accumulation of Hush cards.

Tuesday was Sixty's Day. The Seniors won with the most students dressed up for the day.

Wednesday was filled with events. First the Freshman tied the Juniors on Costume Day. Then it was off to the polls for a mock election. The results in the Presidential Race were Ronald Reagan and George Bush being most popular, and for Governor, the students choice was John Easton. After school was a Jello eating contest.

This years Christmas Ball, featuring Stone Cross, was as yet unsurpassed by any other formal of its kind.

Amidst the sawdust-littered floor, suits and gowns covered the usually casual-looking personalities of M.H.S. There was a veritable smorgasbord of new dances with Trevor (La) LaChapelle doing his version of the Jitterbug with, yes, a candy-cane, as well as making his rock singing debut.

All in attendance wallowed in their elation at this joyous occasion, in other words-it was fun.

Wendy reached one of her goals in riding this year by winning a 9th place at the National Maclay Finals at Madison Square Garden in New York City. She has been riding since age three and hopes to continue in horseback riding as a career. Wendy is pictured on her horse, "Break the Bank".

Darcie has competed all over New England at "A" Horse Shows. She qualified for the New England Horsemen Council Medal Final, and placed 15th. She participated in the American Horse Show Association Medal Finals in Harrisburg Pennsylvania, and the ASPCA Maclay semi-finals, at Old Salem, New York. She is pictured on her mount "Game Plan."

Writing as an art is alive and flourishing at Montpelier High School.

In the fall, two hundred students, grades 9-12, gathered in the cafeteria and wrote for forty-five minutes on topics designated by the University of Vermont and announced only at the time of the contest. They were competing in the Vermont Honors Competition for Excellence in Writing, sponsored by the University of Vermont. High school faculty members, representing several departments, judged the essays.

Second prizes were awarded Amy Gamble, grade 12; Kristin Fisher, grade 11; Erika Mailman, grade 10; Benjamin Sessions, grade 9. Third prizes went to Trevor La Chapelle (12), Julie Murphy (11), Sarah Abbott (10), Steven Jensen (9).

The first-place winners from each class advanced to a regional competition in February. The winning essays were on display in the Governor's Corridor of the Pavilion Office Building in Montpelier in February.

In order to spread more broadly the feelings of accomplishment among the range of competing students, cash prizes were awarded, thanks to the generosity of various community groups. The National Life Insurance Company donated the funds for all first prizes. Other donors: The Boosters Club, the Montpelier Education Association, the Montpelier Elks Club, and the Montpelier School System. In addition to the cash awards, each competing school received a plaque engraved with the names of the winners at the local and regional levels.

This unique statewide contest originated through the interest of an anonymous donor who wishes to promote good writing among Vermont students. $150,000 has been provided over five years and will continue over another five years if eighty-five per cent of Vermont high schools are participating at the end of the first five-year period. Twenty finalists competed on the University of Vermont campus in May. Winners on the state level were awarded prizes as follows: Grade 12- first place, $4,000; second place, $2,000; third place, $1,000. Grade 11- first, $2,000; second, $1,000; third, $500. Grade 10- first, $1,500; second, $500; third, $250; Grade 9- first, $1,000; second, $250; third, $150. All other finalists received $100. No conditions were attached to the money.

A faculty committee at Montpelier High School chooses a female student and a male student each marking period as the outstanding students. The selection is based on positive leadership of students, positive image of Montpelier High School, academic excellence and respect by their peers.

MONTPELIER'S SWISS EXCHANGE

On April 1, Bernard Troesch, Coordinator of the Vermont-Geneva Exchange Program, visited MHS as the official representative of the Government of Geneva. He was accompanied by his wife, Christa, and daughters, Stephanie and Corinne. Mr. Troesch was visiting all schools participating in the exchange. He and his family were honored at a dinner reception at MHS which was catered by Bruce Richards. Mr. Troesch also met with Governor Madeline Kunin regarding future Vermont-Geneva exchange programs.

Governor Kunin welcomed the Troesch family, Swiss group officers and advisors Mr. & Mrs. Adamski.

Mr. Troesch presented Governor Kunin with a flag of the Canton State of Geneva on behalf of the government of Geneva.

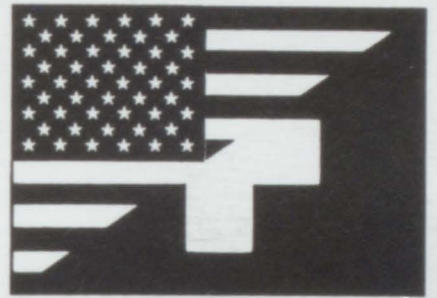

Rob Babcock made Governor Kunin an official "Solon".

Mr. Troesch also gave Governor Kunin an engraving of Geneva on behalf of the Education Ministry of Geneva.

STUDENT EXCHANGES

GENEVA - USA

Governor Kunin became an honorary member of the Montpelier Swiss Exchange upon presentation of the group's official T-shirt by President Rob Babcock.

Governor Kunin presented the Troesch Family with mementos of their visit to Vermont.

What would we do without Dan Nelson as our Taxi Service?

Our Departing Words . . .

This year we feel this is one of the best yearbooks that has been produced. We think much of that comes from all the hard-work and dedication from many people who have helped. We would like to give extra thanks to the few people who put in extra effort and really worked together to get this yearbook finished. We would also like to thank Mrs. Marsh for her help.

Finally, we really appreciate all the long hours Mr. Miana has put in to make this yearbook special. He took a good part of the work and did it himself in his free time. THANKS MR. MIANA!

Stef Pinard, Laura Curtis, Ileene Therrien, Senior Editors
