Song of the Open Road

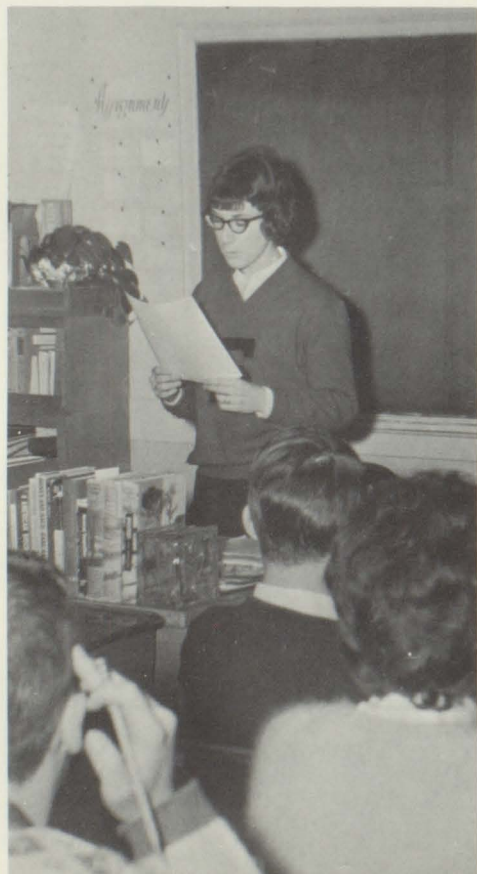

*“A foot and lighthearted, I take to the open road, Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me, leading wherever I choose.”*

Here Is Happiness

"The time to be happy is now,
The place to be happy is here,
The way to be happy is to make others so."

— Robert Green Ingersoll

Happiness at Spaulding has been people, places, and events. Our Echo 1964 recalls many moments of happiness during our four years. We hope these pictures have captured the happy hours and the friendly faces of the Class of 1964.

Mr. Politi and the drafting class,
The Times-Argus and Mr. Morse for photographs,
Mr. Carty for the photograph of the Burns Monument,
The business, industrial, and professional community for financial support, and All the friends who gave us encouragement.

We have taken the theme of Our Echo from "Song of the Open Road" by Walt Whitman. This poem expresses our thoughts today and our hopes for tomorrow.
